Held every four years since that time, except during World War II, the competition consists of international sectional tournaments made up of 32 national teams leading to a final elimination event. Unlike Olympic football, World Cup teams are not limited to players of a certain age or amateur status, so the competition serves more as a contest between the world's best players. Referees are selected from lists that are submitted by all the national associations. The trophy cup awarded from 1930 to 1970 was the Jules Rimet Trophy, named for the Frenchman who proposed the tournament. This cup was permanently awarded in 1970 to then three-time winner Brazil (1958, 1962, and 1970), and a new trophy called the FIFA World Cup was put up for competition. Many other sports have organized "World Cup" competitions.
